WILD Artist/Author Flick Ford

has been painting fish since the early '90s and wrote the text for 10 species in the 2006 award winning book FISH. A life-long angler, Ford has recently revived his passion for fishkeeping and currently maintains an aquarium/riparium with native fish and plants. As both artist and author, Flick is able to fully convey the strong conservation message that has always been the underlying theme of his paintings of fish.
